ORDER:

Orders were issued in G.O.Ms.1028 Revenue dated 4th April 1950 that candidates included in the approved list of Deputy Tahsildars for the districts in which the Scheme of Separation had been extended might be invested with II class powers for purposes of training, that they might be allowed to exercise II class powers without however being posted as Stationary Sub-Magistrates and that they might continue to try II class cases in addition to their own duties as Deputy Tahsildars, for a period of one year instead of 6 months, to the satisfaction of the Judicial District Magistrates. Subsequently the Board of Revenue stated that usually a Deputy Tahsildar was invested with II class powers only after he had exercised III class powers for a period of 6 months and therefore requested the Government to order that the Deputy Tahsildars in districts in which the Separation scheme had been introduced might be invested with III class powers so that they might try III class cases (in addition to their own duties) for a period of six months to the satisfaction of the Judicial District Magistrates. The question was raised whether there was need for magisterial training for so long a period as 18 months for Deputy Tahsildars in Separation districts since they did not have to do so much of magisterial work after they became regular members of the category. It was therefore suggested that the orders in G.O.Ms.No.1028 Revenue, dated 4.4.1950 might be modified slightly by ordering that during the first six months of the period of one year specified in the G.O. the Deputy Tahsildars will try only III class cases. The Board agreed with the suggestion that it would be sufficient if the Deputy Tahsildars in the separation districts exercise III class Magisterial powers for six months and II class magiterial powers for another six months and try cases transferred to them to the satisfaction of the Judicial District Magistrates. The Government accordingly direct, in partial modification of the orders contained in G.O.1028 Revenue dated 4.4.1950

that during the first six months of the period of one year specified in the G.O. the Deputy Tahsildars in the districts in which the scheme of separation has been extended should try III class cases and thereafter II class cases for the remaining six months, in addition to their own duties, to the satisfaction of the Judicial District Magistrates without being posted as Stationary Sub-Magistrates.

2. The Board of Revenue is requested to submit expeditiously necessary amendments to the Madras R.R.S. Rules.
